The handsomest drowned man summary

Warning: Can only detect less than 5000 charactersIt is a figure of the catalyst. His stature and beauty have a transformation transformation Warning: Can only detect less than 5000 characters- "The desolation of their roads, the dryness of their courtyards and the narrowness of their dreams". The greatness, beauty and splendor of the drowned man arouse a desire for personal improvement in the villagers. À ¢ â,~ "We also know that everything would be different from now." Since the man drowned died, he him Don't affect them directly but rather the change issues from within the villagers. They realize that they are only obliged to do others or change their bland lives, meaningless and a man who is really fantastic can inspire change and arousing the passion for personal improvement in others, most people who inspire the World I died. Just like the perception of the children of the drowned man changes from a ship to a whale in a thing of play and the perception of the villages of the villages of him changes, so their minds change a passion to transform their lives and their village. The village is united and has a common goal of municipal development as much as women admire Esteban with the mystical prowess of him; They realize that only they could bring change and not a mythical stranger. They aspire to reach extraordinary stories in their reality this village is desolate and lifeless without flowers, no garden, a basic cliff, wind and sea. The villagers are now united in the offer to put great efforts in excavation for springs between the stones and planting flowers on the cliff. Planano also build houses with larger doors, higher ceilings and stronger floors and painting their gay colors in memory of Esteban there are many exceptional people with admirable traits or disturbing skills that inspire the world, but change must come from inside us. There is no point of living an average life. Next: The stones bounce on the water of Dilman Dillasee Analysis of all the stories in memories we lost here. LostÀ ¢ here.
