The NRS proposes a comprehensive revitalization strategy that enhances the overall desirability of Florence as a place to live, increases the city's regional competitiveness, sets the stage for catalytic development, and builds off of recent successes within and around the downtown area. APD-U's work included community engagement, analysis of existing conditions including demographics, housing and market conditions. After receiving public input and compiling and analyzing relevant data, the final analysis led to the selection of three areas for Catalytic Projects and the development of a stabilization and revitalization strategy for the neighborhoods. APD-U was also retained to manage the implementation of the NRS. Camilla Perrone Florence est une belle ville d'Italie qui séduit tous ses visiteurs par la beauté de son paysage, par le charme des lieux. Pour ne rater aucun détail de son voyage, il est indispensable d'avoir une carte. Elle aide sur tous les points : lignes de bus et de transports en commun, endroits incontournables (monuments historiques, musées et parcs), et même événements à ne pas rater (foires, manifestations culturelles, expositions). Elles renseignent également sur les hôtels, restaurants et différents prestataires de service. Une fois sur place, le touriste ne sera pas perdu grâce à la carte. S'il vient de l'aéroport Amerigo Vespucci par exemple pour se rendre à la gare Santa Maria Novella, il saura que le trajet de bus est de 20min environ. S'il préfère les rails, son voyage durera une heure environ, idem s'il part de la gare de Bologne. La carte est également indispensable pour mieux connaître Florence et ses 60 sites touristiques. Parmi les plus visités, il y a : • Le Ponte Vecchio entre la via Guicciardini et le Lungarno Acciaiuoli • la Chiesa del Santo Spirito dans le quartier di Oltrarno • le Palazzo Pitti à 1 km seulement du centre-ville • le Giardino di Boboli. l'un des plus beaux jardins d'Italie qui se trouve juste derrière le Palazo Pitti • la Galerie des Offices à 10 km au nord de l'aéroport. Avec son méandre de rues, ruelles et places, posséder une carte est conseillé pour s'y retrouver ! Le coeur historique de part et d'autre de l'Arno, se parcourt très bien à pied pour en fouiller les moindres recoins. Chaussez-vous bien et avec une carte à la main aucun problème ! Un petit coup de bus ou tramway donne un coup de main pour passer d'un quartier à l'autre : munissez-vous également d'une carte des transports de Florence.
